General terms and conditions

This section explains the rules relating to your chosen cover.

What makes up your insurance policy

Your schedule, terms and conditions, together with any correspondence sent to you, as well as any verbal agreements made, will form your insurance policy. Please ensure that you are familiar with the contents of all the documents and that all the details noted on your schedule are correct in every respect.

The general terms and conditions of this policy are applicable to you the policyholder, household members and anyone who acts on your behalf, as well as any person using the insured items with your general consent or that of your household members or regular driver.

Definitions of terms used in your insurance policy

Schedule

The part of your policy that lists all the details of the cover under your policy. This includes the description of your insured items, the premium, excesses and endorsements applicable to your cover.

Regular Driver

The regular driver is the person who drives the insured vehicle most often and more frequently than any other person and is named specifically on your schedule.

No-Claims Bonus

Your No-Claims Bonus (NCB) is based on the period for which you have been comprehensively insured with no interruptions in cover and without any claims or losses.

Vehicle Use

The use type for which your vehicle is insured is stated on your schedule. It is important to ensure that your vehicle is covered for the correct use. If your vehicle is not insured for the correct use, you will not have cover when you claim.

Vehicle

Any motor vehicle or light delivery vehicle (LDV) that is registered in South Africa.

Excess

Your excess is the first amount you pay when you claim and is indicated on your schedule.

Additional Excess

Any supplementary excess that is added to the basic excess. All additional excesses are noted on your schedule.

Household Member

This is any person who resides with you at the residential address.

Navigator

The person who controls or navigates a watercraft.

How we indemnify you

Subject to the terms of your policy, we have the option to pay, replace or repair (or any combination of these) through a supplier or repairer of our choice.

If parts for repairs of an insured item are not available and this delays the repairs, we will not indemnify you for the inconvenience or money you lose or for any liability you may incur because of the delay, including but not limited to additional car hire.

Where a claim is settled for lost items that are subsequently found or for damaged items that cannot be repaired, these found and or damaged items become ours upon claims finalisation.

What you pay when you claim - the excess(es)

Every time something happens for which you claim, you must pay the basic excess. You must also pay any of the additional excesses reflected in your schedule, in addition to the basic excess, where applicable.

Policy changes and cancellation

We may change or cancel your policy by giving you 30 days' notice. We may give notice verbally, electronically or by post to your last known address. Any change or cancellation that you make will be effective from the time and date as agreed to. Please note that, if you cancel your policy during the course of an insured month, the premium paid for the rest of that month will not be refunded to you.

Policy Review

Your policy will be reviewed annually on the anniversary date. Any changes made to your policy prior to the review date will also be subject to the annual review.

Payments

Your policy is a monthly policy and you must make the monthly payment in advance, on the deduction date as stated on the schedule. If your deduction date falls on a Sunday or public holiday, your debit order may be lodged for an earlier date.

Payment not received

If we do not receive the monthly payment for a policy on the deduction date(s) as stated on the schedule, you will not have any cover for the period for which you did not pay. From the second month's due payment, if payment is not made, we will allow a 15-day period of grace for payment, after which we will again lodge for payment. We will then also charge a non-refundable deduction fee. If your premium is not received on your preferred deduction date, an attempt may be made to collect your premium on a more suitable deduction date in an effort to keep you covered. If payment is not received for three consecutive months, the policy will be cancelled immediately.

Reinstatement of interrupted cover

When cover is interrupted because we did not receive your payment, we have the right to debit your account to reinstate your cover. We will then charge a reinstatement fee and debit your account with it as soon as possible. In addition to the reinstatement fee, you must also make a payment for the cover to recommence.

Sharing of information

We respect the confidentiality of your information. In order to ensure sound insurance practises and prevent insurance fraud we confirm and disclose information relating to claims, insurance and financial history where applicable. This is applicable to anyone covered under this policy.

We can act on your behalf

We can also act on your behalf when you submit a claim. We can claim against other parties to recover costs or to defend any claim that they may have against you. Should your excess be recovered from the other party we will refund this to you.

Your obligations

If you do not fulfil any of the following obligations, your cover may be cancelled or you may not enjoy cover when you claim.

Your obligations are to:

1. give us true and complete information;
2. comply with all our reasonable requests;
3. assist us in all ways to be indemnified from any other person who caused the loss for which you claim;

11. tell us anything you have not disclosed, that may be important for us to know in order to accept the policy, or about anything that changes that may be important for us to continue accepting the policy, for example criminal conviction for fraud.

- e. normal settlement, shrinkage or expansion of the dwelling or ground on which the dwelling is built.

Under this cover extension we will also indemnify you if you have a home contents policy with us and, due to subsidence, heave or landslip, the insured items that you normally keep inside the buildings at the same insured address are lost or damaged at the same time as your buildings, and your buildings claim is approved; and

What happens if you are underinsured

Buildings cover

You must insure your home for its replacement value. The replacement value is what it will cost you at the time of a claim to rebuild your home, outbuildings, walls, swimming pool, etc. with new material. You must ensure that you increase the value of your cover to keep the values up to date with replacement costs.

If you claim, we will calculate the replacement value for which you should have insured your buildings. If you insured it for less than that, we will only pay a part of your claim, e.g.:

CLAIM	R20 000
INSURED FOR	R100 000
REPLACEMENT VALUE	R200 000
UNDERINSURANCE CALCULATION	$R20\ 000 \times R100\ 000$
	<hr/>
	R200 000
CLAIM PAYMENT	R10 000

Water-Heating Systems cover

You must insure all the water-heating systems in your home, outbuildings and domestic quarters. If you claim, we will calculate the costs against the actual number of water-heating systems in your home. If you did not insure all the water-heating systems in your home, we will only pay a part of your claim, e.g.:

CLAIM FOR ONE WATERHEATING SYSTEM	R10 000
NUMBER OF WATER-HEATING SYSTEMS INSURED	1
ACTUAL NUMBER OF WATER-HEATING SYSTEMS	2
UNDERINSURANCE CALCULATION	R10 000
	2
CLAIM PAYMENT	R5 000

Please note: installations must comply with manufacturers' and all relevant regulatory requirements.
